

ADVANCED PLACEMENT[®] SUMMER INSTITUTES

A brand-new initiative to increase the number of Advanced Placement (AP[®]) teachers in the state of Illinois, the University of Illinois System will be launching two Advanced Placement[®] Summer Institutes (APSI) in 2023 in partnership with the College Board[®] at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign and the University of Illinois Springfield.

The APSI is a College Board[®] endorsed 30-hour training program for high school teachers. The U of I APSIs are designed for new AP[®] teachers or those AP[®] teachers with minimal training from school districts with AP[®] Exam Participation of less than ten percent. The U of I APSIs will focus on four subjects: English Language & Composition, English Literature & Composition,

U.S. Government and Politics, and U.S. History. Teachers may earn up to 30 hours of Professional Development through the Illinois State Board of Education upon successful completion.

The University of Illinois System will cover the full cost of tuition and housing* for those teachers from school districts with AP[®] Exam Participation of less than ten percent. If interested in one of the U of I AP[®] Summer Institutes, please email us your contact information at UillinoisAPSI@uillinois.edu.
